

MR SAM WILLIS
Non-Executive Director

Sam Willis holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Western Australia where he majored in Accounting and Finance with a Marketing minor. He consults to Cygnet Capital in its corporate advisory group in Perth. Prior to joining Cygnet, Sam worked in the corporate advisory field for over 4 years where his primary duties involved providing corporate advice, completing opportunity evaluation, investment analysis, capital raising and co-ordination, broker liaison and deal co-ordination and structuring. Sam has also held positions as a private client advisor with stockbroker Hartley Poynton (since renamed Hartleys), a venture capital advisor with Red Dingo, and as an analyst with both Deutsche Bank and Schroders Investment Management in London. Sam is currently a non-executive director of New Standard Exploration NL and Riley Corporation Limited and recently resigned his position as non-executive director of ASX listed company CTI Communications Limited (now renamed Biosignal Limited) following its successful back door listing and $4m capital raising.